Postponement of Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon 2021

Extending the Spirit of “Together We Run Further” to Fight Against COVID-19

HONG KONG (27 August 2020) – Hong Kong Amateur Athletic Association (HKAAA) announces that due to the uncertainty around the COVID-19 epidemic situation, the Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon originally scheduled for 24 January 2021 (Sunday) will be postponed. HKAAA is now actively working with relevant departments to determine the alternate date for the Event and would like to thank Standard Chartered Bank (Hong Kong) Limited, other sponsors and supporting organisations, as well as all runners and members of the public, for their continued support. Please stay tuned for further details.
